Nashville International Student Thanksgiving Conference

November 22-25, 2007

Nashville, Tennessee

God is not silent.

He wants to be known.

This coming Thanksgiving weekend, November 22-25, 2007, international students and scholars from all over middle and eastern United States will get a chance to explore the God who speaks through music, dance, drama and the arts at the Nashville International Student Thanksgiving Conference.

This year's conference offers an exciting array of activities for full-time international students and scholars to make your holiday weekend a memorable one:

- Stay with an American host family over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend.
- Attend a two-day conference on the theme "Images of Creativity: A Look at Christianity in the Arts."
- Enjoy live performances in music, drama and dance from nationally-acclaimed artists who live in Nashville.
- Learn a traditional American dance form – Square Dancing.
- See some of the sites and 'sounds' of Nashville, "Music City USA".

Presenters:

Michael Card

In a career that spans 25 years, Michael Card has recorded over 20 albums, authored or co-authored over 14 books, & hosted 2 radio programs. Four-time winner of the Dove Award, he has sold over 4 million albums & written 19 #1 hits. "My desire is to make Jesus Christ beautiful & believable to the world," says Card. Join in his journey of creativity!

Bruce and Lisa

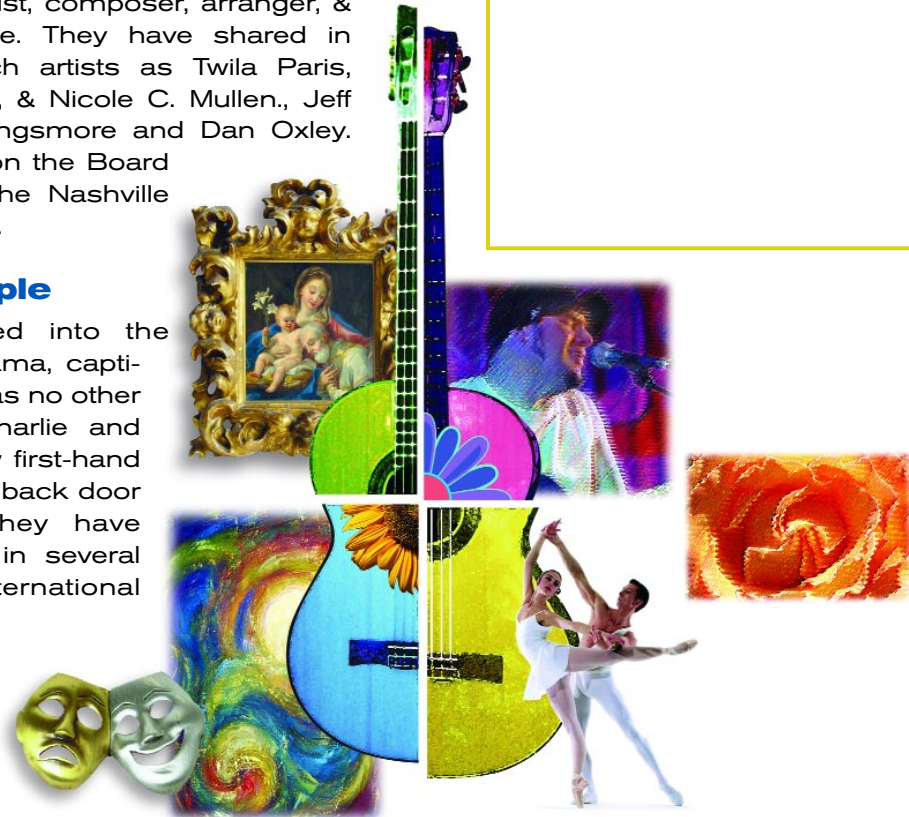

This husband-wife duo create a unique blend of inspirational music that is pure joy. Lisa LaCross plays the flute & is a Yamaha clinician. Bruce Wethey is a violinist, composer, arranger, & Grammy nominee. They have shared in concert with such artists as Twila Paris, Michael W. Smith, & Nicole C. Mullen., Jeff Deyo, Richard Kingsmore and Dan Oxley. They also serve on the Board of Directors for the Nashville Praise Symphony.

Peculiar People

Stories whispered into the heart through drama, captivate and intrigue as no other art form can. Charlie and Ruth Jones show first-hand why drama is the back door to the heart. They have shared their gift in several national and international tours.
